Parking Authority of the City of Scotts Valley STAFF REPORT

DATE: April 17, 2019

TO: Chair and Board of Directors

FROM: Tony McFarlane, Administrative Services Director

APPROVED: Jenny D. Haruyama, Executive Director

SUBJECT: CONSIDER AMENDMENTS TO THE SCOTTS VALLEY PUBLIC FINANCING AUTHORITY JOINT POWERS AGREEMENT ADDING THE PARKING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY OF SCOTTS VALLEY AND WITHDRAWING THE SUCCESSOR AGENCY OF THE SCOTTS VALLEY REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY

SUMMARY OF ISSUE

The City's 2003 and 2013 Certificates of Participation Issues ("2003 COP's" and "2013 COP's") may be refinanced now with significant benefit to the City's General Fund. The 2003 and 2013 COP's can both be called and refinanced now. The 1997 COP's are not callable, and as a result, are not candidates for a refinancing. Under current market conditions, a total of $770,000 in net cash flow savings are projected from refinancing the 2003 COP's and the 2013 COP's.

In order to refinance these COP's, the Board needs to take action on certain technical matters at its April 17th meeting.

Both COP issues are structured legally as a financing lease. The City itself is the lessee. The Scotts Valley Public Financing Authority, a joint powers agreement ("JPA") between the City and its former redevelopment agency, is the lessor. Since the former redevelopment agency has been dissolved, there is now a legal question regarding the legal basis of the JPA. The City's bond counsel recommends that the former redevelopment agency be formally removed as a member of the JPA, and that the City form a new entity to become the other member of the JPA. Based on review of the available options for the City in this regard, the City's bond counsel believes that the formation of a parking authority is the best option to make these changes.

The Parking Authority of the City of Scotts Valley will be asked to take the following action:

- 1) Approve amendment of the Joint Powers Agreement adding the Parking Authority of the City of Scotts Valley and withdrawing the Successor Agency of the Scotts Valley Redevelopment Agency

In addition, State law now requires that JPA boards approve financings at a regularly scheduled meeting. At present the Scotts Valley Public Financing Authority has no regularly scheduled meetings. Accordingly, the City Council is also being asked to amend the JPA to set up regularly scheduled meetings at the same time as City Council meetings. However, this amendment will also provide that no such meeting needs to take place if there is no business to conduct.

Bond Counsel Cameron Weist, from the Weist Law Firm, and Mark Northcross of NHA Advisors, will discuss these items in further detail with the Council.

At its regularly scheduled meeting on May 1st, both the City Council and the Scotts Valley Public Financing Authority Board will be asked to approve the legal documents for the proposed refinancing. The schedule for the financing calls for the refinancing COP's to be sold and closed by May 22nd.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal impact as a result of approving the staff recommendation.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that Board consider taking the following action:

1. Approve Resolution No. PA-01 amending the Scotts Valley Public Financing Authority to add the Parking Authority of the City of Scotts Valley and withdrawing the Successor Agency of the Scotts Valley Redevelopment Agency
