REGULAR AGENDA

SV Artisans

Dawn Teal gave a presentation about the SV Artisans Gallery in Scotts Valley and their proposed Mural in a Day project scheduled for July of this year. The space in the Kings Village Shopping Center provides affordable display and sales space for local artists. The Nonprofit organization is getting involved in a number of local projects, one of which is the Mural in a Day project. This project will involve the painting of a mural on the building wall facing the Post office on Kings Village Road.

M/S Hodgins/Rebhahn, 4-0, approve the Arts Commission as co-sponsor of the Mural in a Day project and Claire Hodgins to serve as the Commission liaison/chairperson for the project

Commission decorum

RDM Sudduth spoke briefly about Commission members being respectful with each other during discussions.

Poetry Contest

Commission discussed the contest. The deadline is next week. Commissioner Melehan will develop a rubric and circulate the poems for scoring. RDM Sudduth will have staff contact the schools to remind them that the deadline is approaching. RDM Sudduth will confirm with the City Manager the date for the poetry presentation to Council.

SV Drive Art Project

RDM Sudduth reported on the project. The location has been selected by the Public Worked Director and the artist. The City Manager indicated that insuring the art piece will not be a problem. The project is waiting on the artist to submit a design proposal.
