

CITY OF SCOTTS VALLEY CLASS SPECIFICATION

EMERGENCY DISPATCHER/CLERK II

JOB PURPOSE:

Under general supervision of the Services Supervisor or the Administrative Services Commander, to perform emergency and non-emergency radio dispatching. Operate a 9-1-1 primary public safety answering point, receive and appropriately act upon all 9-1-1 emergency calls. Answer and appropriately dispatch or route incoming telephone calls. Assist in the operation and maintenance of all automated and manual police record keeping systems within the Scotts Valley Police Department. Performs reception duties at public counter, provide clerical support for all divisions of the Police department via word processing, typing, etc, and perform related duties as assigned.

In addition to the above listed duties, the Emergency Dispatcher Clerk II shall be assigned to Evidence Control which includes responsibility for maintenance of the Evidence Room and all related records; act as court liaison including direct and electronic filing and if needed, transportation of documents to the Courts and District Attorney's Office; provide clerical support for the Administrative Services Commander; and assist in the maintenance of the City of Scotts Valley Disaster Planning Manual. Assists the Administrative Services Commander in scheduling of Services Division personnel; assists with computer data entry and monthly statistical reporting; in arranging for repairs of Department equipment; and processes registrations of all local drug, arson, gang and sex offenders in compliance with state law.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

This non-sworn position is a full time EDC-II. Incumbents will be primarily assigned to permanent day shift, but will be required to assume rotational shifts (nights, weekends, holidays) when assigned, and are expected to be able to perform the full range of duties required of the class. This class is distinguished from the class of EDCI in that the EDCII performs a full range of the more complex tasks and duties assigned to positions within the series. This class is distinguished from the EDCIII in that the EDCIII is a higher level class and has functional lead dispatcher responsibilities for the Dispatch/Records unit.

The EDCII receives general supervision from the EDCIII and Services Supervisor. As training and experience is gained, more independence of action will be expected. Employees at this level receive only occasional instruction or assistance as new or unusual situations arise. Employees at this level are fully aware of Scotts Valley Police Department operating procedures and policies. The EDCII also assists the Service Supervisor in the day-to-day duties of shift administration.

The EDCII exercises lead direction, trains and monitors the work of EDCI's and Volunteers to accomplish specific projects as assigned in the absence of EDCIII's or Services Supervisor. Gives input and reports to the Services Supervisor or Administrative Services Commander on any performance or operational problems encountered while serving as lead dispatcher in the absence of the EDC III's or Services Supervisor.
