Parks and Recreation Update:

- PWD Lamm updated the Commission on the Proposition 68 grant application.
- The City is issuing an RFP for additional landscape services
- The Commission was updated on the progress of offering childcare on-site at Vine Hill School (the School District is taking the lead with the City reimbursing the district for temporary child care housing) and the current building demolition taking place during Spring Break. The Federal infrastructure bill was signed into law with 1.3 million earmarked for the new childcare facility at Vine Hill.
- Council has approved the budget for the July 4th parade and fireworks. An event planner will be hired to put together the festivities at Skypark for the fireworks portion and Council member Donna Lind will coordinate the parade.

Regular Agenda:

1. Parks Volunteer Day, April 23: PWD Lamm discussed the Park Volunteer Day scheduled for April 23rd. The work will be done by volunteers with a Council member having a lead role at each park. Some projects he suggested were: repainting the gazebo at MacDorsa Park, Skypark linear park weed clearing, new wood chips, tree planting and fence repair. The Commission suggestions were: painting the storm drains (to be done by highschool students) welcome to Scotts Valley mural painted on Skypark bathroom, general clean up around the dumpster area at Skypark, and shrubs and weeds trimmed and pulled around the skatepark. Chair Sanguinetti added that surface roots are a problem at Lodato Park.
2. Committee Updates: None
